Borough marks Lancashire Day

Oyez! Town crier Don Evans makes the Lancashire Day proclamation watched by the mayor, Cllr. Nikki Hennessy.
Code1086280

WEST Lancashire's town crier, Don Evans, was in fine voice as he belted out the Lancashire Day Proclamation at the clock tower in Ormskirk town centre at noon last Friday, November 27.

And he was joined by a suitably–attired Mayor of West Lancs, Councillor Nikki Hennessy, for the annual occasion which is held to commemorate the day in 1295 when the first elected representatives from Lancashire were summoned to Westminster by King Edward 1 to attend what later became known as 'The Model Parliament' and is regarded as the start of democracy in Great Britain.

CYCLIST KILLED IN COLLISION WITH ON–COMING CAR

Report by Lynda Roughley

Court told driver lost control on bend

A 35–year–old cyclist was killed after an on–coming motorist lost control on a bend and ploughed into him, a court has heard.

Such was the impact of the collision on a country road over the M6 near Leyland that part of victim Daniel Richmond's bicycle was sent hurtling over the bridge onto the motorway below.

In the dock at Liverpool Crown Court is 38–year–old Andrew Irish, of Andertons Mill, Mawdesley, near Ormskirk, who denies causing death by dangerous driving.

The jury heard on Monday (November 30) that Irish, who had only bought the high–powered car a week earlier, admits causing death by careless driving but that plea is not accepted by the Crown.

Charles Lander, prosecuting, said that the incident happened just after 9.10 am on Sunday, April 13 last year on Runshaw Lane, Euxton, near Chorley.

Married man Mr Richmond and his friend Matthew Abbott had set off from Mr Richmond's home in Lancashire 25 minutes earlier for a cycling trip to Southport on a route they had ridden before.

They were correctly dressed and in single file on their own side of the road and just approaching a right hand bend when Irish came from the opposite direction on their side of the road and collided with Mr Richmond.

Mr Abbott, who had been in front, heard the sound of Irish's black Audi S3 Quattro and hearing screeching thought the car was not going to make the bend without crossing the white line. He saw it going past him and then heard "an almighty crash."

"He got off his bike and saw his stricken friend who was lying up against the bridge fence", said Mr Lander.

Distracted

Despite the efforts of motorists, including a retired midwife and dentist, as well as ambulance staff, Mr Richmond was pronounced dead at 9.40am from multiple injuries consistent with high–speed impact.

Mr Lander told the jury that there were red warning bars with 'slow' painted on the road, which has 60 mph limit, and ample distance after the warning sign to reduce speed before the bend. A police expert calculated that Irish was traveling at at least 53 mph or possibly faster when he began to leave tyre marks and that the safe speed for negotiating the bend was no faster than 30 mph.

Irish stopped immediately after the collision and rang the ambulance services and told them he had "skidded on the corner and hit a cyclist coming the other way."

He said to a police officer at the scene: "Where's the blue car? it was pushing me and driving close to me so I went faster."

Mr Lander said that a witness had seen a blue Astra behind him but an expert claimed there was ample distance for Irish to have slowed down before the bend and the driver of that car stop at the scene without colliding with Irish's car.

When interviewed Irish said he had bought the seven–year–old car a week before for £12,850 and had set out that day for a driving range and was not in a hurry.

Police launch annual crackdown on drink and drug driving

Report by Danielle Thompson

LANCASHIRE Constabulary have lunched their annual December drink and drug driving crackdown.

The festive campaign, which aims to educate drivers about the dangers of drinking and taking drugs before driving, will see police carrying out roadside checks at locations across the county.

Officers will use saliva testing kits alongside the standard breath tests, meaning motorists will be tested for alcohol, cannabis and cocaine.

Modelled on drink–driving tests, the legislation, which was introduced on March 2 this year, makes it an offence for motorists to drive with certain drugs above a specified level in their blood.

Last year, a total of 5,012 drink drive tests were carried out across the county in December with 153 people failing the test and four refusing to provide a specimen.

Inspector Andy Trotter from the constabulary's Road Policing Unit, said: "This Christmas will be the first year we have used the new drug–testing kits alongside standard kits for alcohol testing, which means we are better equipped than ever to identify those who take this very dangerous risk.

"We will also be focusing our activity on late–night revellers who may still be over the limit the morning after and we are particularly keen to get the message across to young drivers, who may be tempted to take the risk.

"If you drive at twice the legal alcohol limit you are at least 30 times more likely to cause a road traffic collision than a driver who hasn't been drinking, potentially resulting in serious injury or death.

"We are determined to keep our roads safe, whether that is at night or the morning after and we will be working throughout the festive period to keep the public safe. We want people to enjoy the festive season but to remember the consequences of driving whilst under the influence of alcohol or drugs.

"If you're out partying this Christmas then please plan ahead and book a taxi, check public transport times or don't drink. If you know of someone who is driving under the influence of drink or drugs then please do the right thing and call us on 101 or Crimestoppers anonymously, before they kill themselves or somebody else."

Crowds brave atrocious weather to enjoy Christmas lights switch–on

HEAVY rain, strong winds and even the occasional flurry of sleety snow failed to dampen the enthusiasm of the crowds enjoying the Christmas lights switch–on in Ormskirk on Friday.

Family entertainer Fun Steve got the festivities started with games on stage and despite the relentless downpour children and parents entered into the spirit dancing to party favourites as Ormskirk Rock Choir, conducted by a drenched Anthony Seaman, carried on regardless with popular tracks including Don't Stop Me Now by Queen.

Popular children's characters Mickey Mouse, Peppa Pig, Spongebob, Olaf from Frozen and Red Power Ranger entertained the youngsters, while Santa – helped by the local Rotary Club – greeted youngsters in his grotto.

Compere John Lambert revved up the party atmosphere, introducing Jingle Belles performing tracks from Frozen and other fairytale tunes.

And the Mayor of West Lancs, Councillor Nikki Hennessy delivered a jovial mayoral Christmas address as part of the carol service before being join by Jingle Belles to turn on the lights.

Brollies to the fore as a packed crowd defy the rain at the Ormskirk Chirstmas lights switch–on. Code1086295

Council leader, Ian Moran and fellow councillors also supported the event while local clergy conducted the carol service accompanied by Skelmersdale Prize Brass Band and the Friends in Unison Choir.

Town crier Don Evans was also in attendance and bagpiper Don Bithell led the procession to the arena for the start of the main event.

Cllr. Hennessy said: "I was really pleased to see so many people getting into the Christmas spirit despite the heavy rain and enjoying the fantastic party atmosphere at the switch–on event. The town's lights look wonderful and help to create a lovely seasonal atmosphere. It was a fantastic evening and the council is very grateful to the loyal supporters who weathered the storm, guest performers, and all involved who made the event so special."

Man on assault charge

POLICE were called to St Helens Road, Ormskirk at around 2.30am on Sunday, November 29 after reports that a man had assaulted two 19–year–old women.

A 38–year–old man was arrested at the scene and charged with two counts of assault by beating.

Terrence Fearns, of Lincoln Green, Liverpool, has been bailed to appear at Ormskirk Magistrates on December 29.

In the prepared statement he said the Astra behind appeared to be wanting to travel faster or overtake and as he approached the left hand bend he seemed to lose traction and veered slightly towards the middle of the road and there was a bang as the cyclist hit the front of his car.

In a later interview he claimed he had been significantly distracted by that other car, said Mr Lander.

Extra market days and free parking offer in bid to woo festive shoppers

WEST Lancs Council are serving up a double bonus for shoppers in Ormskirk over the festive season with two extra market days and a two hours' free parking offer.

In the run–up to Christmas there will be additional market days on Wednesday, December 16 and Monday, December 21.

Beacuse of the festive holidays there will be no market on Saturday, December 26 but there will be markets on New Year's Eve, Thursday, December 31 and Saturday, January 2.

The market days will run from 8am to 4pm.

Meanwhile, From Tuesday, December 1 until Christmas Eve, Thursday, December 24 shoppers can save money when using the council's car parks in Ormskirk.

Visitors who buy a pay and display ticket will receive an additional two hours' free parking.

This offer applies only to council–controlled pay and display car parks so users should ensure they read car park signage.

The offer for parking does not include the Park Road car park (at the rear of the former Tesco building) which is free for the first hour.

A valid parking ticket must be displayed.

Councillor John Hodson, whose cabinet portfolio responsibilities include the market, said: "With the excellent festive parking offer and extra markets, Ormskirk is a great place to come this festive season – so make sure you come into town to do your Christmas shopping."

Motorists should note that the two extra free hours will not be shown on the pay and display parking ticket purchased from a machine on a council–controlled car park. So, for example, if you buy a ticket at 10am for one hour's parking the ticket will still show an expiry time of 11am. But, during the special offer period, you will be able to park until 1pm.

Notices explaining the offer will be on display at the council–controlled car parks. All car park attendants are aware of the offer and will allow for the extra two hours after the indicated ticket expiry time.

OLD BED RECYCLING SERVICE

County's £65m cuts package approved

PROPOSALS aimed at saving £65million over the next two years have been approved by Lancashire County Council.

The plans, which include the closure of 40 of the county's libraries and withdrawal of all funding for subsidised bus services, are part of measures the council says it is being forced to adopt to tackle a potential funding gap of £262 million by April 2020.

More than 360 full–time jobs will be axed as a result of the plans, in addition to the 1,100 staff who have already left the authority since January 2014 on voluntary redundancy.

Although county chiefs have not yet disclosed which libraries will be closed at least two and possibly three of the five in West Lancashire could be threatened.

The 34 remaining libraries would be allocated one each to 34 designated 'service planning areas' including Skelmersdale, Ormskirk & Newburgh and West Lancashire West. It is hoped the move would save the authority somewhere in the region of £7million.

Councillors also agreed to remove funding for all subsidised bus services in the county, an annual saving £7.5million, a move that could affect some unprofitable routes serving outlying areas of the borough.

County Cllr. David Borrow

County Councillor Jennifer Mein, leader of the county council, said: "The decisions we have taken are heartbreaking but reflect the unprecedented financial situation we face. Even with these measures we still face a funding gap of nearly £200m by 2020 so unless central government has a change of heart there will be harder decisions to take in future."

And deputy leader David Borrow, cabinet member with responsibility for finance and property, added: "These plans are striking but they represent less than a quarter of the savings we have to find by 2020. And we know that we will still face a shortfall of £56m in 2018/19.

"We will have to look at the detail of the Chancellor's announcement that we can raise council tax by 2% to go towards adult social care. This may go some way to alleviate pressures in that area but won't solve what has been chronic underfunding for these vital services."

Other proposals agreed included removing the subsidy for discretionary denominational transport and reducing the Highways budget by £2.8m.

Meanwhile, the cabinet also approved plans to achieve a long–term reduction in the county's corporate property portfolio. Under this strategy, public services would be delivered from a network of multi–functional neighbourhood centres, determined on the basis of the needs of local communities.

Cllr. Borrow said: "The proposal to establish neighbourhood centres and reduce the number of buildings we operate is a key tool in helping to cope with the huge financial challenges we face. This is the start of a process that will include consultation with local people and partners."

County council to ban HGVs from using listed bridge

By Danielle Thompson

HEAVY vehicles will be banned from using a grade II listed bridge in Ormskirk from January in an effort to preserve it.

Lancashire County Council are introducing an 18–tonne limit on the Derby Street bridge, which is almost 170 years old, while options are explored to strengthen or replace it.

This will require heavy goods vehicles to follow a diversion.

Inspections found that the bridge, which carries the A570 over the Liverpool to Ormskirk railway libe, has structural problems and a weight limit is needed to minimise further damage.

Buses and emergency services vehicles will not be affected by the weight limit.

In order to allow time to find a suitable solution and secure funding to put it in place, the temporary traffic regulation order could be in place for around five years.

Options for Derby Street Bridge range from demolition and replacement to major strengthening. However, strengthening options are limited as the position over the railway makes access difficult and closing it for a long time would have a major impact.

Derby Street Bridge in Ormskirk Code1086324

Replacing the bridge would cost around £2.5m to £3m, while a strengthening and widening scheme would cost £3m to £4.5m.

Replacement would be the quickest option but its heritage status would need to be removed and any replacement would need to complement the town's conservation area.

The design of the bridge means it is not well suited to carry today's heavy traffic and even if it was strengthened, further works or a solution would eventually be needed.

The council will also consider how pedestrian access over the bridge could be improved as part of a repair or replacement scheme, as the existing pavement on one side of the bridge is very narrow.

HGVs will be re–directed via a route which will use some roads within Sefton. Derby Street is a one–way street carrying east–bound traffic using the A570 while a number of diversion routes will be in place to cater for HGVs which currently travel east through Ormskirk on the A570 on the way to other destinations, and for heavy vehicles whose destination is within Ormskirk.

Businesses on the one–way Derby Street and the surrounding roads east of the bridge have been advised to use delivery vehicles weighing 18 tonnes or less to service their businesses.

Helping hand on to property ladder

COUNCIL tenants in West Lancashire who are eligible to buy their home but don't want to buy the property they live in, can now apply for a £20,000 grant to help them on to the property ladder.

The government–funded scheme was launched earlier this year and the council is currently progressing applications for five interested parties in the borough. The scheme remains open to other tenants and Councillor Jenny Patterson, the council's portfolio holder for housing, said: "This is a great opportunity for council tenants who want to buy their own home – so please get in touch to see if you are eligible."

Tenants can apply for a one–off cash payment which replaces the 'Right to Buy' discount they are entitled to. Successful applicants use the £20,000 payment towards buying a home on the open market, releasing their council home for another applicant on the Housing Register.

Funding is aimed at tenants who are able to support a mortgage but may not want to buy the property they are living in.

West Lancs Council has secured funding to help 10 families and are inviting eligible tenants to give them a call.

Any tenant who is interested and thinks they could qualify can email Admin–Housing&Regen@westlancs.gov.uk or call property sales on 01695 585211.

Fury victory 'honed' in Ormskirk!

WEST Lancashire played a key role in the build–up to Tyson Fury's sensational victory over Wladimir Klitschko in Germany on Saturday – according to a national newspaper report.

The article says the new world heavyweight king honed his skills in preparation for his historic success in a converted barn on the edge of Ormskirk.

Fury, the 27–year–old self–styled 'Gypsy King', stunned the sporting world by claiming a unanimous points verdict over odds–on favourite Klitschko in their 12–round clash in Dusseldorf to become the proud new holder of the WBA, IBF and WBO belts.

It is believed that the new champion, along with his dad, John and trainer, uncle Peter, slept in caravans during their preparations at what the report described as a 'spartan training camp in an unglamorous corner of West Lancashire.'

During training, Fury also sparred at an industrial unit five miles away.

Ethan aims to hit the high notes in talent contest!

Report by Ollie Cowan

A TALENTED 10–year–old from West Lancashire who took up singing lessons to help boost his self–confidence has made it through to the regional finals of a prestigious music competition.

Rufford Primary School pupil Ethan Cross will take to the stage at the Royal College of Music in Manchester on Sunday (December 6) for the North West finals of the OpenMic UK contest – something he wouldn't have been able to do a few years ago, according to his proud mum, Amanda.

The youngster from Tarleton has seen his self–esteem soar since joining the Amanda Neale Singing Academy in Leicester Street, Southport.

Amanda Cross told the Champion that she has seen her son's life change immeasurably for the better after swapping schools and joining the academy.

She said: "Ethan started singing and dancing at home when he was about five years old but he only took up singing lessons for fun this year with Amanda Neale's Singing Academy.

"Amanda is absolutely amazing. She is so kind, caring, fun and has such a bubbly personality.

Ethan and his singing coach Amanda

"Starting at Rufford Primary and meeting Amanda Neale have both changed Ethan's life for the better – now he says that 2015 has been the best year of his life!

"Amanda has got to know Ethan really well and her encouragement, support and personality have been perfect to help him with his self–esteem.

"She felt entering Ethan into the competition would be a perfect platform for him to gain confidence and she has been with him every step of the way."

Ethan will now face a panel of judges, with pals, Luke Buckley and Elliot Gallagher, acting as backing dancers during the routine.

Amanda Cross added: "The national OpenMic UK competition attracts around 10,000 entries each year and is essentially a children's X–Factor. Previous winners include Lucy Spraggan and Jaymi from Union J.

"Ethan will face judges including music producers and representatives from Sony Music and Universal Music when he takes part in the under–16s category.

"He is allowed up to two backing dancers so we contacted his friends from Basedance in Ormskirk. The boys gelled really well together, have lots of fun and just clicked instantly. Their last performance was in Liverpool in front of a live audience and family.

"If they get through this next round they will be in the national finals and the boys are practising hard for their next performance and, in their words, they intend to 'give it large'!"

Young dancers to turn on Burscough Wharf lights

THE Burscough Wharf Christmas lights switch–on will be held on Friday (December 4).

The family fun will begin at 5.30pm with a disco in the courtyard, followed by a Christmas medley performed by The Ukes ukelele club.

This year's Santa Parade will travel from Guy's Industrial Estate arriving at the Wharf at about 6.30pm and the switch–on will be performed by youngsters from the Kelly Shirley School of Dance, who earlier this year won the title of Dance World Champions in Romania.

Santa's grotto will be open from 6.30 to 8.30pm for children to have their pictures taken for free.

Burscough Wharf site manager, Ray Eckersley, said: "It's great to be welcoming the talented dancers of the Kelly Shirley School to take part in the parade and they will be joined by special guests, Princess Elsa, Anna, Kristoff and Olaf from the film Frozen who will perform songs from the movie.

"All the shops and eateries will be open late with the Blue Mallard serving seasonal fare and all are welcome to come along and join the fun."

Christian group hoping to attract attention

Report by Danielle Thompson

MEMBERS of a long–established Christian group in Ormskirk are hoping to attract the attention of local residents when they hold their first open day on Saturday (December 5).

The event, at the Christadelphian Hall on Moorgate, will run from 10am to 4pm and will include free tea and coffee for visitors, displays about charities they support and a chance for the public to learn more about the group, how they baptise people, what they believe and how they worship.

Organiser, Andrew Fenner believes that many local residents don't know anything about the group even though they have been established in the town for more than 100 years.

He said: "Christadelphians have been in Ormskirk since 1899 and we moved into our current hall in Moorgate in 1922. However, like so many buildings that have been around in the town for a long time, people often walk past and don't even realise it is there.

"We are between the Girl Guide hut and the council car park but very few people seem to even know we are there and fewer still have actually been in.

"So, we are throwing our doors open to invite people to come in and have a look around. It's not a service such as we have on Sundays, it's more a chance to have a good nosey at what we do."

How the Ormskirk Christadelphians Hall looked when they moved in around 1922

Sister Margaret makes festive appeal for vital funds for African orphans

By Danielle Thompson

ALTHOUGH Christmas is traditionally a time for family and friends a nun from West Lancashire is urging residents of the borough to spread a little festive cheer further afield this year by making a much–needed donation to an orphanage in Africa.

Sister Margaret Rose first went out to the Democratic Republic of Congo 16 years ago to help launch The Gorsilaure Project, a scheme that aims to to take in destitute children and give them a home and schooling to help them complete their education up to university level.

Run by Father Simon Lumbela at the Gorsilaure Children's Village in Qinsantu, Bas–Congo, the project also runs a hospital with maternity and surgical units, as well as overseeing farming, food–production and manufacturing schemes.

And although she returned to the UK after three year, 73–year–old Sister Rose, who is a member of Sister of Notre Dame religious congregation in Parbold, has continued to work on behalf of the project by seeking to raise its profile in this country.

Now though the project is in desperate need of financial support as the charity has revealed that it is set to run out of funds early next year.

Sister Margaret Rose, who is originally from Scotland but moved to Lancashire three years ago while having treatment for cancer, said: "The project does a wonderful job helping to improve the lives of many of the Congo's millions of destitute children and young people.

"However, it is still very much a work–in–progress and the fate of the children and young people in its care will be greatly determined by the ongoing financial support that is given – or not – to the project.

Vulnerable

"The local version of Ofsted in the Bas–Congo province has rated the primary school attached to the project as the best in the province and 10 orphans who progressed through the project are currently at the University of Bas–Congo.

"Father Simon has to pay their expenses though and needs urgent help in order to make it possible for them to continue with their education because education is what gives a voice to the voiceless and empowers the powerless.

"So I am appealing to the people of West Lancashire to make a donation to this worthy cause, no matter how small, to help this vulnerable community survive. A donation would be so wonderful and truly in the spirit of Christmas."

• ANYONE wishing to make a donation can contact Peter Harding on 01383 822540 or 07963 606 677.

Campaign group's prize challenge bid to woo shoppers

By Danielle Thompson

Love Ormskirk's Christmas Shopping Challenge

CAMPAIGN group Love Ormskirk are launching a Christmas shopping challenge with £900 of prizes up for grabs by one lucky winner!

The aim is to encourage shoppers to complete their Christmas shopping list in Ormskirk – including their big food shop – by offering the opportunity to win prizes and vouchers to spend in the town in the New Year.

Among the prizes up for grabs in the promotion are a Harman Kardon Aura Wireless Home Speaker System worth £350 from NSC O2, a pair of FDJ Jeans up to the value of £135 from Pandora's Box, six bottles of Red Fizz worth £16 each from La Cantina, and a skin peel treatment worth £75 from The Aesthetic Clinic.

The lucky winner will also win a pair of tickets worth £20 from The Arts Centre at Edge Hill, a £50 Competitive Edge voucher, £50 Joseph's voucher, £40 MD Vapours voucher, £30 David Moss voucher, Starbucks gift hamper and £25 vouchers for The Cricketers, Elementary and Vanilla, plus a voucher worth £20 for Marks and Spencer.

Entrants have to fill in a form online on the Love Ormskirk website, giving details on where they got their presents, what they were, how much they cost and describe their shopping experience. To qualify you must purchase 10 gifts, plus food.

Donated

Katie Givens from Love Ormskirk said: "We believe this contest will help us to put Ormskirk on the map for Christmas shopping this year!

"Shoppers can supply extra information – although it's not mandatory – including, for example, who the gift was for. And any pictures and diary entries via social media platforms tagging us as they buy would be fantastic!

"The winner will bag a selection of great vouchers and prizes donated by Love Ormskirk members to spend by the end of February 2016."

Entries can be posted to: Love Ormskirk, 2 Wheatsheaf Walk, Ormskirk, L39 2XA; or sent via email to hello@loveormskirk.com. The competition closes at noon on Monday, January 11 and the winner will be announced on the Love Ormskirk website between Christmas and New Year.

Not all landlords are 'outsiders' and we do care about the appearance of our town centre

AS a former headteacher, I feel compelled to write and branch out into 'adult education.'

I was infuriated by Mrs P. A.'s criticism and generalisation of landlords and student properties (Letters, November 11).

I also wish to stress that her perception that landlords live outside of Ormskirk, with no regard for the appearance of our town centre or the rented properties, is totally wrong.

Demise

Proud to have been born at Ormskirk Hospital in 1951, I've lived and worked and continue to live in Ormskirk. Like many of the local landlords, I work hard to maintain the properties' external appearance and they're certainly not 'shabby.'

Yes, I've seen the demise of our market town and the growth of Edge Hill University. But we cannot hold the university accountable for the empty shops.

Unlike Mrs P. A., who I note is a Lathom resident, I strongly oppose the current trend of town–centre buildings and pubs becoming student accommodation.

The fact is, one wealthy businessman has over several years purchased many prominent buildings and it is his development company that is making the various planning applications to West Lancs Borough Council to gain a change of use that we read about.

To conclude, Ormskirk can strive to improve its image without your critical comments directed at landlords.

G. L., Ormskirk

Hospital staff should set an example when it comes to stopping the spread of germs!

DURING a visit to the physio department at Ormskirk Hospital recently I noticed by the side of the reception window was a hand gel dispenser which we are all told to use for the prevention of germs spreading.

While I was sitting there various members of staff came and went and yet no–one used the gel dispenser once.

A member of the public then walked into the physio dept and she went to use the gel and it appeared that it may have not been working. She tried again but still nothing happened.

She then went to the window where the receptionist was seated and asked her if she knew if it was working. The receptionist replied that she had no idea if it was working as she has never used it!

I found this quite amusing.

If you expect the general public to use gel dispensers then surely it would be nice to see members of staff using them and not admitting that they never do!

Mary Agnew, Ormskirk

Thanks, Guys for a great night!

THANK you for the tickets we won through the Champion for Guys and Dolls. We had a fantastic night.

The performance was top–class and the seats were excellent.

Retailers not guilty of profiteering from PayPoint transactions

IN a recent Champion article West Lancs MP Rosie Cooper's comments were critical of a local retailer for requiring supplementary purchases with PayPoint transactions.

Whilst in no way does the National Federation of Retail Newsagents (NFRN) encourage or condone retailers breaking the terms and conditions of supply from suppliers, retailers who have been forced into the position of asking PayPoint customers to make a supplementary purchase are not profiteering.

They are merely seeking to maintain a service to their customers that they would otherwise have to remove, causing much detriment for less–advantaged customers who rely on over–the–counter utility service top–ups.

For some retailers, regrettably, this action is necessary in the face of an extremely aggressive supplier who is not paying retailers a sufficient income to operate its terminals and is expecting retailers to subsidise its own profitability through sales of other product lines.

Paul Baxter, chief executive NFRN

We can help if you're worried about your disability benefit claim

WE would like to warn local people who are receiving disability benefits about changes announced by the government sometime ago that are only now beginning to affect people's lives.

For years Disability Living Allowance (DLA) has been one of the main benefits for people of working age who needed help and support. However, some time ago the government decided to replace DLA with Personal Independence Payment (PIP) and decided that all existing recipients of DLA aged 16 to 64 will at some point get a letter inviting them to apply for PIP.

But some of those DLA recipients might not realise that they have to respond to the invitation to apply for PIP even if they have been granted DLA lifetime awards. Also, for many, filling in complex forms is both a worry and a time–consuming exercise.

The problem is made worse because if they do not apply when asked to, and their DLA ceases, they will lose any of a number of benefits linked to DLA, such as continued access to a motability vehicle.

We would therefore like to stress that anyone receiving an invitation to apply for PIP must do so, whatever their current arrangement over DLA. Also, may we suggest that they contact us at Citizens Advice, where we have a team of trained advisers who can not only guide them through the application process but also explain in detail what to do if at first they are turned down.

Anyone wanting advice and assistance with dealing with the invitation to apply for PIP can call us on 03442451294. Many have already done so and we are able to help through the appeal process if they have been turned down.

This can be a worrying time for many people but we can help.

Diane Gradwell, chief executive, Lancashire West Citizens Advice

Council should wake up to town's lack of amenities

I AM sure the majority of Skelmersdale's residents agree with the letter from David Carter (November 11).

How can we be called a town when we have no amenities whatsoever, no train station, decent bus service, shops, etc?

Our sports centre was demolished and now, to add insult to injury, the new college is closing down facilities for A levels.

In a recent survey West Lancs Council could not understand why approximately 70% of people were dissatisfied, because Burscough and Parbold are good places to live – so they chose to ignore it!

Wake up... Skelmersdale is part of West Lancs, you know.

Train stations – Burscough 2, Parbold 1, Skelmersdale 0!

Catherine Mussell, by email

Surely two years is long enough to get a degree?

WITH reference to recent correspondence regarding student hooliganism in Ormskirk, while I accept that the majority of students are hard–working and do not cause any problems to local residents, they do all appear to have an exceptional amount of free time.

Some will use this to study, some just to enjoy themselves. They appear to party all night and then sleep until afternoon.

I would offer a rather radical but fitting solution. Degree courses should be just two years in duration.

Without question the primary reason for attending university is to obtain a qualification, not to waste money on pleasure and merriment! Surely, two years of study is adequate to obtain a good degree.

TWO cast members from Channel 4 soap Hollyoaks will be special guests at the first Legacy Rainbow House Christmas fair on Saturday (December 5).

Anna Passey, who plays Sienna Blake in the programme, and James Sutton (John Paul McQueen), will perform the switch–on of the spectacular Christmas tree lights at the event which will open at 2pm in the new Rainbow House hub at the children's charity in Saltpit Lane, Mawdesley.

The actors are due to arrive at around 3pm with the lights switch–on scheduled for 4.30pm.

The fair will feature Christmas carols, a brass band, mince pies and tombola plus Father Christmas in his magical grotto, donkeys and a Victorian ice cream barrow.

Parents can get into the festive 'spirit' with a glass of mulled wine and there will be gift stalls selling jewellery, handbags, skin care, aromatherapy products, hand–made ponchos, card crafts, glitter glass, soft toys, cakes and biscuits.

All proceeds from the day wil be in aid of the charity which provides rehabilitation and support services for children and young adults with brain injuries, multiple disabilities and complex health needs and their families.

County earmarks £5m to improve 'inadequate' children's services

LANCASHIRE County Council is to implement £5million of changes to improve children's services after an Ofsted report last week rated services for children and young people as 'inadequate' following inspections in September and October.

The measures, which include recruiting new social work and support staff, are designed to address concerns raised by inspectors including a lack of consistency in the quality of care and support.

Public's help sought to correct roll of honour name errors

COUNCIL chiefs are seeking the public's help with a special tribute they are planning to local people who lost their lives serving the country in the two world wars.

The Ormskirk War Memorial was moved from outside the former Comrades Club to Coronation Park in 2012 and as part of the works the council agreed to engrave the names from printed 1914–18 and 1939–1945 Rolls of Honour on to new stone plaques erected alongside the memorial.

However, following extensive research to ensure the names were correct, it appears a large number of potential errors, including spelling mistakes, may have occurred when the rolls were originally drafted.

As a result the authority is seeking to consult with the wider community to help them see if their findings are correct before work starts on the plaques next year.

A spokesman for the council said: "It is important to stress that the council is only seeking information about the names on the existing rolls of honour as these are the ones that relate to the Ormskirk Comrades Memorial.

"Our approach will be only to correct potential errors which are corroborated by clear evidence. Where no such evidence exists we will use the names on the existing rolls. We are not looking for new names in addition to those people already on the rolls of honour for these new tributes."

Copies of the 1914–18 and 1939–45 Rolls of Honour are available on the council's website at www.westlancs.gov.uk.

Anyone wishing to send comments or evidence on the names included on the Rolls of Honour can do so in writing to: Ian Bond, Heritage and Environment Manager, West Lancashire Borough Council, 52 Derby Street, Ormskirk L39 2DF; or by email to ian.bond@westlancs.gov.uk.

This public consultation will run until Friday, January 8.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Manager Paul Kane feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Crosby, Litherland, Aintree, Maghull, Walton, Anfield, Netherton, Bootle, Formby, Ormskirk and Skelmersdale areas & Paul is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Paul a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Online fraud alert to festive bargain seekers

Shoppers urged to be extra vigilant in run–up to Christmas

By Danielle Thompson

LANCASHIRE Constabulary have teamed up with crime prevention agencies to warn residents about the dangers of online crime in the run–up to Christmas.

The force's figures for last Christmas show that in Lancashire individuals and businesses reported losing £238,526 to online fraudsters through online shopping and auction fraud in the festive period.

The police have joined forces with Action Fraud, the City of London Police and Get Safe Online to warn shoppers to be extra vigilant in the weeks leading up to Christmas as online fraudsters are watching and waiting to capitalise on the biggest shopping frenzies of the year and to catch out any last–minute shoppers buying on the final few days before Christmas.

Detective Constable Mark Laing, from the digital investigation unit at Lancashire Police, said: "Online shopping continues to thrive and we know that so many people will be surfing the net to buy gifts for their loved ones. We want to make sure that they don't fall victim to cyber–fraudsters and their scams.

"Some of the most common items being bought and sold by victims and fraudsters last year included smart phones, footwear, clothing, watches, gaming consoles, computers and furniture.

TIPS

"Over the next few weeks we'll be posting loads of tips on our social media channels on how to stay safe and we would urge people to follow us and take the advice on board.

"If anyone falls victim to one of the dozen festive frauds, or any other type of cyber–fraud, they are encouraged to report it to Action Fraud – the City of London Police–based national reporting centre – on 0300 123 040 or at www.actionfraud.police.uk."

Council's services winter weather watch

RESIDENTS and businesses in West Lancashire can keep up–to–date with any changes to local authority services as a result of bad weather conditions on the council's website.

Information about any alterations to services, including refuse and recycling collections, is available at www.westlancs.gov.uk/winter or by following the council on social media site Twitter @WestlancsBC.

Council leader, Councillor Ian Moran, said: "Council staff work hard to ensure they are fully prepared should bad weather arrive. By viewing our website or following us on Twitter people will receive updates about affected council services as they happen."

Lancashire County Council also provides information on services such as highways, gritting and school closures at www.lancashire.gov.uk/winter.

Easter has been 'cancelled' – in my politically correct diary that is!

WILL the last person to leave Great Britain please turn the lights out?

Actually, the way things are going, there won't be much of a GB to leave anyway.

I came to this conclusion after breaking out the new diary I bought for 2016 to check when Easter falls next year and searched in vain for Easter Sunday or Good Friday.

A printing glitch, perhaps (mind you, the same 'glitch' seemed to have extended to Christmas 2016 as well). But, no worries I thought, and opened the larger diary I keep to record what I actually got up to day by day and guess what? Easter and Christmas were cancelled in that too!

So I checked my two diaries for this year, and sure enough they are missing from them too. But the outwardly similar 2013 versions contain small notes on the appropriate days saying what they are, along with the Queen's birthday and Ramadan.

The same differences also apply to all public holidays in the UK. Interestingly, while the 2013 diaries say they were 'Published in the UK', this year's and next's make no such claim.

To be charitable, I might think that these changes were to save money on research into holiday dates and printing – but frankly I'm not that charitable. No, it seems to me that these dates have been removed just in case they might cause offence to folk of a different religion.

I can see that this swingeing deletion of all things British might, to a deluded mind, apply to our religious festivals and holidays and I rather suspect that they decided that the mention of Easter or Christmas could offend someone.

I suppose that having taken this ridiculous stance, you would then also have to remove the dates for Bank Holidays as well. They wouldn't want to look silly, would they? So to appear inclusive, the producers of my diaries have decided that there is no need for me to know when our official holidays are.

The whole thing is fatuous and, I would have thought, offensive and patronising to those very groups that whoever made these decisions was trying to placate. After all, their only other choice would have been to include in its pages the dates of every celebration for every worldwide religion and that would look silly too, as well as taking up a lot of space on each page of the diary probably.

I have more or less decided to stop banging on about the stupidity of most so–called 'politically correct' daftnesses – it's just like banging my head on the soft wall of those to whom diversity means accepting just about anything so long as it is not a native tradition. It makes no impression on this vocal minority but gives you a headache anyway.

And I have long since given up listening to so–called 'comedians' and their supposed 'jokes' which these days seem to be more of a hectoring lecture into the failings of reactionaries such as myself – and of course that old favourite, Margaret Thatcher, the mention of whose name seems to bring out roars of laughter from an audience many of whom weren't even born when she was Prime Minister.

What has been totally forgotten about jokes which now are classified as either sexist or racist is that they were also funny because there was a grain of truth in them. A friend of mine used to bring back 'English jokes' after visits to his family in Northern Ireland, and very funny I found them too.

If you cannot laugh at the failings of your own country or religion (and both must have failings the world over) then I feel there must be something very wrong with the morals of the country or their faith in their religion.

I'd bet a pound to a rupee that the Indians had some great jokes about the British Raj – and I'd bet too that we could laugh at them as well, without taking offence.

Christmas for everyone

From the turkey to the sprouts, the mince pies to the party puddings, whatever festive feast you're throwing this Christmas, eat, drink and be merry with our selection of delicious festive recipes. When it comes to Christmas, food and drink play such a key role and whilst many thrive on the pressure, there are those who find the endless preparation and cooking particularly stressful and challenging.

With this in mind, our latest Focus On publication aims to provide both inspiration, some tips and hints and above all, delicious recipes to assist you over the festive period. This collection offers you a choice at every stage of your food preparation. We have gathered the most interesting suggestions and where possible, have also tried to select recipes that can be made in advance, as let's face it, this is the best way to ensure a stress free Christmas, not spent entirely in the kitchen. Finally, we have also paid attention in choosing ingredients that are easy to source which hopefully won't break the bank.

So whatever you choose to do, you will find this Focus On... full of great ideas and we hope that you will spend a very tasty Christmas and New Year!

Starters

Whatever your choice of starter, one rule of thumb remains. Because invariably the main event will be quite substantial, you don't want to overfeed your guests and your main consideration in deciding on your starter is to keep everything light.

Adam Gray's Parsnip and Apple soup

(Serves 4 but can easily be doubled)
This first course is light, delicious and won't fill your guests up too much. You may prefer to serve grissinis instead of bread so as not to add too much stodge.

INGREDIENTS

500g parsnip
1 onion
2 Granny Smith apples
50g butter
1 litre semi skimmed milk
150ml single cream
Salt & White pepper
3 tbsp grated Parmesan
Crusty roll

METHOD

Start by peeling and quartering the parsnips, removing any hardened centres. Peel, core and quarter the apples then finely chop the onion. Heat the butter in a large saucepan until it starts to foam. Add the onions and cook gently for 8-10 minutes, stirring now and again, until they are soft but not browned. Once soft, throw in the parsnips and apples and cook for a further 5 minutes.

Pour in enough milk to cover the ingredients. Bring the milk to the boil and then reduce the heat, simmering gently for 15-20 minutes until the parsnips are tender. Once tender remove the pan from the heat and pour in the single cream. Place the soup in a liquidiser and blend until smooth, then pass it through a fine sieve. Season to taste, serving with a sprinkle of Parmesan cheese and the crusty bread.

Smoked Salmon Terrine

(Serves 4)
Some folks can't do festive without smoked salmon but even they may hesitate in serving it straight from the pack. Here's an elegant and easy recipe for a Smoked Salmon terrine by Shaun Rankin that will stun and delight everyone around...

INGREDIENTS

400g of smoked salmon
125g of unsalted butter
125ml of whipping cream
pink peppercorns crushed

To serve
1 cucumber
4 slices of bread
4 hard boiled quail eggs

METHOD

Prepare for the terrine by making the clarified butter. Melt the butter completely in a saucepan. Once it has separated, use a spoon to carefully remove the milky residue on top and discard. Pour the golden liquid butter left slowly into another pan, leaving the milky water behind. Weigh out 150g smoked salmon. Slice and lay the slices across the inside of a terrine mould lined and overlapped with cling film, ensuring they overlap and are long enough to reach up the sides of the terrine and cover the top when filled. Place the remaining salmon in a food processor and blend until smooth.

In separate pans, warm the cream and clarified butter. Slowly add the cream and then the butter to the processed smoked salmon and blend until smooth. Season with crushed pink peppercorns.

Pour the salmon mixture into the terrine mould, and fold over the overhanging salmon slices to cover the top. Cover the whole terrine with cling film again and place in the fridge to chill for at least 4 hours, preferably overnight.

Just prior to serving, peel the cucumber and then, with a peeler, create cucumber ribbons. Set aside and served with quail eggs, parboiled for about 3 mins and cooled in iced water.

Smoked Fish Pate

(Serves 6)
If you have next to no time, all is not lost. Try this recipe and see why. Serve with toast or fresh crusty bread.

INGREDIENTS

4 skinless smoked mackerel fillets (or smoked salmon equivalent weight)
100g cream cheese or creme fraiche
1 tbsp creamed horseradish
1 knob butter
1 small handful freshly chopped parsley
zest and juice of 1 lemon
salt and pepper, to taste

METHOD

Whiz everything into a food processor until smooth using only the juice of half the lemon. Taste test and add more lemon juice if desired. Season with salt and pepper and serve immediately or chill covered in the fridge until needed.

Main Event

Try as you might, turkey will always feature high in the choice stakes where Christmas is concerned so we include it in our choices here. But you will agree that our recipe is a little different from most! This section is all about the 'main event' so if you are going to push the boat out... do it in style!

Turkey, Brie & Cranberry Wellington

(Serves up to 8)

This recipe allies all the traditional flavours and because it uses far less meat than a whole bird, it is cheaper and much quicker to cook. Prepare it a day ahead and rest, even easier! This would also make a great buffet centrepiece.

INGREDIENTS

2 x 500g blocks all-butter puff pastry
plain flour, for dusting
1 egg, beaten

For the stuffing layer:

2 tbsp butter
1 leek, finely sliced
100g gammon, chopped
4 sausages, skins removed
5 sage leaves, chopped
85g fresh breadcrumbs

For the filling:

2 turkey breasts
200g brie, sliced
4-5 tbsp cranberry sauce

METHOD

For the filling, trim your turkey breasts: you want to create a long tube of meat in the middle of your Wellington, similar in shape to a fillet of beef – you can use the trimmings in the stuffing, so don't worry about wastage. Once you have the correct shape, slice a pocket into the breasts deep enough so that the Brie and cranberry sauce will stay inside, but don't cut all the way through. Divide the cranberry sauce and Brie between the 2 turkey breasts, then chill while you make the stuffing.

For the stuffing, heat the butter in a frying pan and gently cook the leek for about 5 mins. Meanwhile, finely chop the turkey trimmings and add to the pan with the gammon. Cook for about 5 mins, then remove and allow to cool slightly. Mix with the sausagemeat, sage and breadcrumbs, then season.

Roll out the first block of pastry on a floured surface to about the thickness of a pound coin: you want a long thin shape that is about 5cm wider than turkey breast width and 5cm longer than length of turkey breasts placed end to end. Gently lift this onto a baking sheet and put the turkey breasts on top, followed by the stuffing. Roll out the second block of pastry, brush the edge of the bottom sheet with egg and lay the top one over. Trim edges to neaten, then crimp together. Can be made up to one day in advance and chilled.

Heat oven to 200C/180C fan/gas 6. Brush the Wellington with more beaten egg and, with a sharp knife, score a criss-cross pattern, but don't cut all the way through. Cook for 30 mins, then cover with foil and cook for 30-45 mins more. After 1 hr, check that the middle is hot by inserting a skewer for 5 secs – it should feel hot to the touch. Leave to rest for 15 mins, then slice to serve.

Rolled Shoulder of Lamb with Christmas Pudding Stuffing

(Serves 8)

If the idea of turkey is not for you, lamb is a great alternative especially in this recipe. The sweetness of the meat and its stuffing are showcased with a gravy to die for. A real treat.

INGREDIENTS

1.3kg lean boned and rolled lamb shoulder joint
2tbsp freshly chopped rosemary leaves
Salt and freshly milled black pepper
1tbsp rapeseed or olive oil

For the Christmas Pudding Stuffing:

100g prepared Christmas pudding, crumbled
50g cooked white rice, cooled
Grated zest of 1 large lemon or 2 small clementines or satsumas
1tbsp freshly chopped chives

For the Sherry Gravy:

1tbsp plain flour
450ml good, hot lamb stock
150ml sweet sherry or Port

METHOD

Preheat the oven to Gas mark 4-5, 180-190°C, 350-375°F. Scatter the rosemary on a large tray. Unroll the joint (reserving any elasticated meat bands and coat each side with the rosemary. Leave skin side down and season.

To prepare the stuffing; in a small bowl mix all the ingredients together and spread evenly over the lamb. Roll up and secure with butcher's string or reserved elasticated meat bands. Place on a metal rack in a large non-stick roasting tin, drizzle with the oil and roast in a preheated oven for about 80 minutes. Cover with foil if browning too quickly. Remove the joint from the oven, transfer to a large plate, cover and leave to rest for 15-20 minutes.

To prepare the gravy; spoon off any excess fat from the roasting tin and discard. Place the roasting tin over a medium heat and sprinkle over the flour. Stir well with a small whisk or spoon, add a little stock and stir again, scraping the base of the pan to release any rich, sediment. Add the remaining stock, sherry or Port and any meat juices,adjust the seasoning, if required and simmer for 8-10 minutes, stirring occasionally or until reduced to a well-flavoured gravy. Strain before serving.

Squash and Spinach Pie

(For 4)

This can be a challenge to the meat loving cook and often, vegetarians feel left out or second class citizens with boring and bland options on display. Things will look up if you serve this choice. And look, easy ingredients to get too!

INGREDIENTS

3 tbsp olive oil
1 butternut squash (about 770g), peeled and cut into small wedges
2 tsp chilli flakes
400g frozen spinach, defrosted and squeezed dry
200g Greek-style salad cheese, chopped
150ml Greek-style yogurt
50g butter, melted
4 large sheets of filo pastry

METHOD

Preheat the oven to 200°C/fan180°C/gas 6. Heat the oil in a large frying pan, then fry the squash over a medium-high heat for 10 minutes until tender, adding the chilli flakes towards the end of cooking. Transfer to a bowl to cool a little, then mix in the spinach, cheese and yogurt. Season well, then set aside.

Butter a sheet of filo pastry and use to line a roughly 26cm x 16cm shallow tin so the ends overhang. Repeat with 2 more sheets, laying them in alternate directions, so you get a good amount of pastry overhang on all sides of the tin. Spoon the squash and spinach filling evenly into the prepared tin. Cut the remaining sheet of filo in half, butter both pieces and lay over the top of the filling. Fold the overhanging pastry into the centre to encase the filling. Brush the top of the pie with a little more melted butter, then bake in the oven for 25-30 minutes until golden and piping hot. Turn out or slice in the tin into portions. As an alternative, this would work well as individual filo parcels, too. You could serve one for a veggie guest and freeze the rest. In step 2, line four individual ramekins or pie moulds with the buttered filo. Fill, cover and bake for 20 minutes until golden.

Desserts and Puds

We can't seriously give you ANOTHER Christmas pudding recipe at this time of the year when every magazine out there has their 'sure-fire-never-fails' version for you to try. As most people end up buying one anyway, we have opted to present to you some simple and tasty alternatives.

Baked Stollen Pudding

(Serves 8)

The traditional taste of Christmas is very evident with Stollen, that German cake filled with marzipan and fruit. This pudding is so simple and so tasty, you just got to try it

INGREDIENTS

- 750g-1kg/1lb 10oz-2lb 4oz Stollen, cubed
- 300ml double cream
- 300ml milk
- 2 eggs, beaten
- 6 amaretto biscuits, crushed
- icing sugar, to serve (optional)

METHOD

Heat oven to 180C/160 fan/gas 4. Put the stollen cubes into an ovenproof serving dish. Mix the cream, milk and eggs together and pour over the Stollen. Sprinkle over the amaretto biscuits. Bake for 45 mins until golden and slightly risen. Serve dusted with icing sugar, if you like.

(www.bbcgoodfood.com)

Christmas Mess

(Serves 8)

After a big dinner, a light dessert can be most welcome. This particular dessert would also work well any time throughout the festive season with all its Christmassy flavours.

INGREDIENTS

- 600ml double cream
- 400g Greek yoghurt
- 4 tbsp lemon curd
- 1 x 500g bag frozen mixed berries
- 4 tbsp icing sugar
- 2 tbsp cassis (optional)
- 1 pinch cinnamon
- 8 meringue nests

METHOD

In a small saucepan gently heat the frozen berries, icing sugar and cinnamon until the sugar has dissolved. Remove from the heat, stir in the cassis, if using, and set aside to cool completely. Whip the double cream and Greek yoghurt until just holding it's shape, ripple through the lemon curd. Break the meringue nests into a glass bowl or 8 individual glasses. Spoon over half the cream, then half the berries. Repeat with the remaining cream and berries. Serve immediately.

((www.bbcgoodfood.com)

Gorgonzola and Marsala Pears

(Serves 2)

Many of us are over faced with sugar at this time of the year so how about a relatively simple cheese course alternative. If you like blue cheese, this one's the one for you!

INGREDIENTS

- 2 pears, core removed the cut into quarters
- 1 tbsp unsalted butter
- 2 sprigs of rosemary
- Peel of 1 lemon
- 3 tbsp Marsala
- 2 tbsp honey
- A pinch of black pepper
- A large wedge of Gorgonzola

METHOD

Heat a large frying pan over a high heat. Add the butter and allow to melt, then add the pears, rosemary and lemon peel. Allow the pears to caramelize before turning them over and splashing in the Marsala wine. Add the honey and bring it up to a bubble and cook for 2 minutes until syrupy. Serve with Gorgonzola cheese and crusty bread.

Scouts' festive postal service

MEMBERS of a local Scout group are once again launching their own Christmas delivery service to raise funds.

This is the third year that 29th Ormskirk (Burscough St John's) Scouts have organised the initiative for the Burscough village area.

Scouts will be deliveringletters and cards left in a number of 'postboxes' located at their headquarters in School Lane and at the following stores and locations within the village – Perfection in Mill Lane, Halo Cards, Neil Heyes Opticians, KC Computers, Profile Hairdressers, Fishlocks Pharmacy, Synergy Dental Practice, Graham's and Tesco.

The group will also be selling their own stamps, priced 30p, which can be bought up to Friday, December 18. Delieveries will be made on Saturdays December 5, 12 and 19.

A spokeswoman for the Scouts said: "Anyone wishing to use the service should make sure they only use our special Scout postboxes and not Royal Mail boxes. If you post your cards in a Royal Mail box the recipient will have to pay a £1 surcharge.

"We will deliver all the cards we receive that have a full address but no responsibility will be accepted for valuables, incorrectly addressed cards or any addressed to areas outside of Burscough.

"Of course youngsters can also send their letter to Santa – just address the envelope To Santa, North Pole, no stamp needed!"

WIN! WIN! Cinderella tickets at Opera House

AS the countdown to Christmas begins, Cinderella, at Manchester Opera House will see national icons Jayne Torvill and Christopher Dean swapping their ice skates for hi tech rollerblades as they make their panto debut as Cinders' Fairy Godparents.

And the Champion has three family tickets (4 tickets per family group) to give away to lucky readers for the show at 5pm on Sunday, December 13.

Arguably Britain's most loved sporting heroes, Torvil and Dean will bring their unique talents to the Opera House for the first time ever and will be joined on stage by Wicked star Liam Doyle as Prince Charming with his loyal sidekick, funny–man Samuel Holmes.

Stand–up comedian and actor Andre Vincent will play the smitten Buttons with the beautiful Eloise Davies in the title role alongside the best boo–able 'Uglies' in pantoland, Tim Hudson and Dave Lynn, as her nasty stepsisters.

The classic rags–to–riches tale Cinderella will be transformed into a breath–taking family extravaganza with glittering sets, gorgeous costumes, big song and dance numbers, real Shetland ponies and jaw–dropping skating sequences.

To win a family ticket to the region's biggest panto all you need to do is tell us what (with a bit of fairy magic!) was Cinderella's beautiful carriage made from?

Send your answer to:– Cinderella Competition, The Champion, 166 Lord Street, Southport, PR9 0QA. Please include your name, address and a daytime telephone contact number.

Entries must reach us by 12noon on Wednesday, December 9, 2015. Winners will be the senders of the first three correct entries drawn.

Budget reprieve 'a victory for common sense' – commissioner

Report by Henry James

THE government's decision to freeze, rather than reduce, police budgets as part of the Chancellor's Comprehensive Spending Review has been hailed as "a victory for common sense" by Lancashire's police and crime commissioner, Clive Grunshaw.

And he believes that the outcome was achieved partly as a result of the county's public campaigning against further cuts.

The commissioner, who had feared that Lancashire would be one of the hardest hit as a result of the funding review, said: "Together local residents, our officers, staff and local politicians stood up and we said we could not take any more cuts and it appears the government has listened to the case we put forward.

"First they had to halt the funding formula review after I and other commissioners raised issues with their basic maths and now they have conceded and agreed with our argument that now is not the time to cut our police.

"This is a great victory for my campaign, for the people of Lancashire and a victory for common sense.

"I wrote to the Home Secretary and the Prime Minister last week spelling out exactly that police budgets should not take any more cuts, particularly in the light of the recent terrorist attacks. It seems they have listened and put public safety ahead of spending cuts."

However, Mr Grunshaw warned that because the budgets were protected it wouldn't mean an increase in services and it wasn't the end of austerity.

Clive Grunshaw

He said: "We haven't seen the end of the assault on police budgets by any means, but we have a reprieve. There is no doubt that the funding review will come back soon but we will again put forward a strong case for Lancashire and for policing as a whole.

"Lancashire Constabulary has seen a reduction of 700 police officer roles and 500 police staff since austerity began and services are stretched but what we can look at now is sustaining services, improving our collaboration opportunities and introducing the technology we leave to drive improvements."

Unique Lego brick animal trail unveiled at Martin Mere

By Henry James

A young visitor to Martin Mere gets up close with Kate the Kingfisher.

THE Wildfowl and Wetlands Trust's giant Lego brick animal trail – the only one of its kind in the UK – has been launched at Martin Mere.

This is the first time these characters, especially created for the WWT, have been seen in the North West among the real–life animals which inspired them.

A brand new addition to the trail has also been unveiled, Kate the Kingfisher, which Blue Peter presenter Barney Harwood helped to build.

She has been made especially for the Martin Mere trail and is being featured on Blue Peter, along with her other giant brick friends (who Barney also helped put out on the trail) on CBBC tomorrow (Thursday, December 3).

Through the giant brick animal trail, the nature reserve is using the world's most popular toy to encourage younsters (and the not–so–young) to build a better future for nature.

The 10 individually–designed Lego brick characters will be on dispay at the Burscough centre for nine weeks over the winter (including the Christmas holidays) until January 31.

As well as Kate the Kingfisher, the giant models – some up to 12 times life–size – include Flavia the Andean flamingo, a riot of pink bricks, Benedict the Bewick's swan, magnificently stretching his brick wings, and Emily the Emperor dragonfly, perched on a Lego brick reed.

Another model, Lottie the otter, was named through a social media competition, to celebrate the birth of Princess Charlotte.

The brick models were created by Bright Bricks, the UK's only certified LEGO professionals, and Tom Poulsom, the famous Lego brick 'birdman'.

In total, 123,200 Lego bricks were used over 965 hours to make all 10 characters.

Martin Mere general manager, Nick Brooks, said: "We're thrilled to welcome the new 'species' that have landed at Martin Mere. We know our visitors old and new are going to absolutely love them. They're a really fun way to highlight some of the animals WWT helps to protect.

"Here at Martin Mere we take particular pride in helping to conserve the Hawaiian goose (Nene) the world's rarest goose, which was originally identified as a species that needed protecting by our founder Sir Peter Scott. Today, we are using Lego bricks to inspire the next generation to continue Sir Peter's work of saving threatened wildlife."

As well as the trail, budding sculptors can take part in fun and games at Lego brick workshops at weekends and daily through the Christmas holidays. People can also build their own minifigures. All proceeds will support WWT's conservation work in the UK and around the world.

Students getting ready for their biggest production

STUDENTS and staff at The Artz Centre in Skelmersdale have been preparing for their biggest production so far, which is due to take to the stage this coming weekend at The Ormskirk School Theatre.

The show has been written and directed by Mark Ashton and features over 110 cast members between the age of two and 32.

This project will cap off another good year for The Artz Centre.

The Lost Christmas is a heart warming festive tale, which Mark said will take audiences on a roller coaster of emotion. He added: "This production is packed with tradition, amazing characters and some stunning individual and ensemble performances, it will bring a lump to your throat and will surely get you in the mood for Christmas."

Writer and director Mark added: "This is the biggest project I have ever been involved in and to say it is ambitious is an understatement.

"I wanted to offer the opportunity and experience to all of our students, even the youngest ones and their response has been overwhelming. This production has already been earmarked for bigger things, attracting interest from publishers from all over.

"I want to pay tribute to the professionals that have helped to bring this production together.

"The Artz Centre is home to some of the most inspirational people I know and this production is the cherry on the cake of what has been an unbelievable year for everyone involved.

"I have been writing plays since I was in high school and this one is very special to me. I wanted to create something that could be enjoyed by a wider audience, something that would make the audience think but ultimately something they would remember long after they had left the theatre. This is perhaps the most festive thing you will see and a great night out for families this Christmas."

Tickets for the production are now on sale. For more details email info@artzcentre.co.uk or call 01695 733080. The Artz Centre can also be found on Facebook and Twitter

Saint Jude's Novena

May the Sacred Heart of Jesus be glorified, loved and preserved throughout the world now and forever.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, pray for us, St. Jude worker of miracles pray for us. St. Jude, helper of the hopeless pray for us.

Say this prayer 9 times a day. By the 8th day your prayers may be answered. Say it for 9 days and it has never been known to fail.

Publication must be promised. Thank you St. Jude

Instructions:
Light your candle and declare out loud what miracle you need right now. Repeat this prayer 9 times for 9 days. Do this at the same time each day, never skip a day. If you do, you need to start over again. On the 9th day give thanks, and say "So be it." Give it up to Saint Jude and let go of any worry. You will see results in 72 hours. Never use this prayer to manipulate or control anyone. Use it only with the best intentions.

This is the most important part of the entire process YOU MUST pass this miracle prayer onto others. Some people publish it in the paper, others e-mail it to their friends, and others post it a public building.

PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN

Never known to fail.

O most beautiful flower of Mount Carmel, faithful Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in this necessity, O Star of the Sea, help me and show me herein you are my Mother, O Holy Mary Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succour me in my necessity.

(Make Request).

There are none that can withstand your powers. Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 Times).

Sweet Mother, I place this cause in your hands (3 times).

Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine.

This prayer must be said for three days and after that the request will be granted and the prayer must be published.

Eco friendly vehicles for Merseytravel workers

MERSEYTRAVEL is using a trio of electric vans to get its workers between seven of its sites on either side of the River Mersey. Following a trial where the transport authority used a Nissan EV200 as one of its pool cars three have now been added to its 40–vehicle fleet. The eco–friendly vehicles will be seen conveying workers between ferry terminals and through both of the Mersey tunnels.

Mereytravel is using eco–friendly Nissans in both the Mersey tunnels. Code NA

Classic car show relocated to new venue

A NEW YEAR treat for classic car fans has been relocated to a new venue. Traditionally the January 1 show for owners of older cars took place at Briars Hall in Lathom, but it's now going to take place from 10.30am onwards at the Corner House pub in nearby Wrightington. The pub's other monthly meetings for classic car owners have been suspended for the winter until 6 March next year.

The new event replaces the long–running classic car meet at Briars Hall. Code NA

Fiat Spider returns for 2016

FIAT has resurrected the 124 Spider for its return to Britain's sports car market next summer. The new car is loosely based on the Mazda MX–5, but uses the Italian manufacturer's 1.4–litre MultiAir engine.

It's not often you experience a spellbinding drive in a Renault Clio

Life On Cars
DAVID SIMISTER

HARRY POTTER has led me to some of the best roads in the British Isles.

Well, the makers of the films – and my other half's love of tracking down their locations of choice – did. Head to Hogsmeade railway station and you have to go there via some of the North Yorkshire Moors' more stunning roads. Equally magical for wizard watchers is Malham Cove, which apparently popped up in the first instalment of Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows – and meant I had an excuse to drive across the Yorkshire Dales in an MX–5.

It's weird. A movie franchise best known for flying Ford Anglias appears to have been filmed entirely in places car fans love. Which is how I ended up driving along Ireland's further–flung bits of coastline in a rented Renault Clio last week.

I already knew the destination would be pretty spectacular – if the Cliffs of Moher are dramatic enough to appear in a cinema near you, chances are they'll be even more imposing in real life – but two things left a big impression on the way there.

The first is discovering there's a road that threads its way along the Atlantic coastline for mile after mile before twisting and turning through what feels like an eternity of hairpins on its way up to the clifftop – and that it was virtually deserted. It's a bit of Ireland that's wonderfully removed from our rush hour madness, but stick your car on the Liverpool ferry to Dublin tonight and you could be driving it tomorrow afternoon.

Yet the real surprise was the car – that rented Clio. It might have an interior lined with cheap feeling, scratchy plastics but there was nothing low–rent about the way it clung on in tight corners. It just got on with the job with no fuss – track day fans might look elsewhere but in supermini terms I've driven far worse.

It looks good too – gone are the blobby proportions of the old Clio and in are some neat bits of detailing – like those Alfa 156–esque hidden rear door handles. In fact, the only thing I could really fault it on was the lack of oomph from the 1.2–litre petrol engine – 75bhp was more than enough for Galway's tight streets, but it definitely felt like it was made for a smaller stage than Ireland's trickiest roads.

Renault was clearly on a roll when it reinvented the Clio.

Soccer star goes back to school

Rachel Brown–Finnis with pupils at St Bede's

A FORMER women's international footballer gave an inspirational talk and coaching session to Year 7 pupils at a local school.

Recently–retired goalkeeper, Rachel Brown–Finnis visited St Bede's Catholic High in Ormskirk as part of the Living for Sport Project run in conjunction with Sky Sports and the Youth Sport Trust.

Rachel, who played for both Liverpool and Everton ladies, was a member of the first–ever Team GB women's football squad for the London Olympics in 2012.

Entertaining clash on cards when rejuvenated Whitby sail into Stormy Corner for league clash

Report by Neil Leatherbarrow

SKELMERSDALE United are scheduled to return to league action on Saturday for an Evo–Stik Premier Division match at home to Whitby Town before they head out on the road in cup–tie football again next week at least once – and maybe twice.

That depends on how they got on in last night's (Tuesday) FA Trophy replay against Chorley at Stormy Corner which was only confirmed as being on after a pitch inspection at 2.30pm yesterday.

Meetings between Skem and Whitby are well known for being good ones. The town that gave birth to Captain Cook have a football team that is renowned for playing with a bit of flair, so it should be an entertaining match for the Skelmersdale public on Saturday.

However, the North Yorkshire outfit have been struggling this season and recently parted company with manager Darren Williams.

They have temporarily put defender Lee Bullock in charge, bringing a turnaround in their fortunes on Saturday when they won 4–1 at home to Mickleover Sports.

Next Tuesday (December 8) Skem are due to travel to Bootle for a Liverpool County FA Senior Cup tie.

Apparently, at this stage, Tommy Lawson is intending fielding a fairly strong team for the game but that could well hinge on whether his side have another FA Trophy match the following Saturday.

If Skem have beaten Chorley last night they will go to AFC Fylde in the next round on Saturday, December 12.

If not, they will play Ramsbottom United away.

Whichever opponents are on the agenda there will be a preview in next week's Champion.

Lawson's men defy the odds and heavy pitch to earn second bite in Trophy

Chorley 0 Skelmersdale United 0

Report by Neil Leatherbarrow

FACING a bigger and stronger National League North side on their own heavy pitch, which only passed an inspection at 1.45pm, Tommy Lawson's men defied the odds to earn a well–deserved draw in this FA Trophy clash at Chorley's Victory Park on Saturday.

Despite the conditions, Skem played their usual passing game and limited the hosts to a meagre portion of chances, before finishing strongly to set up a replay scheduled to be played at Stormy Corner last night (Tuesday).

The first half saw defences in control, although Chorley had opportunities at either end of the half and Skelmersdale in the middle.

James Dean put a half–chance wide of Skem's near post after former Southport forward Darren Stephenson had fought his way down the left wing in the ninth minute.

And on 24 minutes Ged Kinsella was upended just outside the Chorley 'D' but Louis Corrigan's free–kick was off target.

Last goalmouth action of the half arrived two minutes from the whistle when a Chorley corner from the left was played a couple of times before Andy Teague got in a header that was fairly comfortably dealt with by Skelmersdale goalkeeper Martin Fearon.

After the interval it was expected that Chorley would go on the offensive and they duly did, though one incident apart after Skem had weathered a 20–minute spell, that was it as far as serious threat was concerned.

Chorley did ask more questions of the Skelmersdale defence when they switched from two to three up front on 53 minutes, the Magpies manager Matt Jensen introducing substitute Sam Cosgrove.

And shortly afterwards Fearon pulled off his best save of the match, diving full length to palm a Jake Cottrell shot wide of his righthand post – a particularly good effort as he surely could have only seen the shot very late in a crowded goalmouth.

Both Stephenson and the mobile Cosgrove put efforts wide of the far post as Chorley's pressure got quite intense around the hour mark, but Skelmersdale defended well during this period.

A clearance off the line followed up by a shot against the post gave Tommy Lawson the signal he needed to make changes, Dean the aggressor on both occasions.

The fresh legs gave Skelmersdale more impetus and they started to take advantage of Chorley tiring in the latter stages and the game generally became more stretched.

However, defences ruled until the end and the reality was that the weather conditions were the real winner on the day with both teams struggling to get any rhythm going on the soggy surface – although it must be said it was still a lot better than when Skem last visited a couple of years ago.

Chorley: Ashton, Ross, Lynch (Whitham, 72), Teague, Charnock, Cottrell, Jarvis, Guy (Cosgrove, 53), Dean, Bond, Stephenson Subs (not used): Roscoe, Rittenberg, Rigby.

Skelmersdale United: Fearon, Mooney, Holden, McIntosh, Rendell, Woolcott (Staunton–Turner, 79), Kinsella, Strickland, Almond, Corrigan (Abadaki, 73), Ince (Kusaloka, 90). Subs (not used): Hardwick, Gyimah.

Cricket clubs recruit ahead of new season

IT'S not exactly cricket weather outside and the 2016 Liverpool & District Competition might be four months away but that hasn't stopped our local clubs bolstering their squads in readiness for next year's campaign getting underway in April.

In the Premier Division, Ormskirk have signed two players from Southport & Birkdale – Lancashire's 2nd XI batsman Josh Bohannon and all–rounder Scott Lees.

Meanwhile, slow left–armer Tom Hartley will step up from the club's 2nd XI, Liam Hurt has left to join Manchester–based Clifton and Dane Currency will not be returning as their overseas player.

In the First Division, Ainsdale, having lost Adnan Rasool, have moved quickly to sign experienced left arm spinner Martyn Farrell from Ormskirk.

Elsewhere, Paul Walters takes over from Greg Gillespie as skipper of Maghull and his first job will be to try and replace opening bowler Ryan Swiers, who after 11 years at the club, has re–located to Nottingham.

And Burscough have retained Australian Navdeep Aujla and are looking to improve their squad after the club's upcoming annual general meeting.
